The material on this Web site is the property of North American Saddle Mule Association or private individuals with whom NASMA has contracted to use their material and is protected by U.S. copyright and trademark law. No part of this Web site may be used for any commercial purpose. All rights are reserved, TM© Copyright, North American Saddle Mule Association 2009.

NASMA PRIVACY STATEMENT

-  At North American Saddle Mule Association, we strive to help our members and customers protect their privacy while enjoying our services.
-  We collect information from our members during the registration process and, occasionally, at other times. This information, which ranges from limited personal data such as age and address to facts about members' computers, professions, leisure and equestrian habits, is then securely stored on separate servers. North American Saddle Mule Association's policy is to respect and protect the privacy of our users.

SECURITY

-  The importance of security for all personally identifiable information associated with our members, or other guests is of utmost concern to us. We exercise reasonable care in providing secure transmission of your information from your PC to our servers. Unfortunately, no data transmission over the Internet can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. As a result, while we strive to protect your personal information, NASMA cannot ensure or warrant the security of any information you transmit to us or from our online products or services, and you do so at your own risk.
-  Your NASMA member account is password protected so that only you can access it and view the member information relevant to your account. We recommend that you do not divulge your password to anyone. NASMA will never ask you for your password in an unsolicited phone call or email. Ultimately, you are responsible for maintaining the secrecy of your passwords and any account information.
-  Remember to sign out of your NASMA account and close your browser window when you have finished your work. This is to ensure that others cannot access your personal information and correspondence if your computer is accessible to others or if you share a computer with someone else or are using a computer in a public place like a library or Internet café.

USES OF REGISTRATION INFORMATION

-  Registration information may be used in several ways: To enable us to process, validate and verify memberships.

PERSONAL INFORMATION

-  Participation in certain online services and membership programs requires the collection of personal information for the purpose of conducting business with NASMA. In addition to participation in these programs and services, this information is used to contact our web customers for customer service purposes, if or when necessary. By using any interactive portion of this web site, you consent to the collection and use of this information by NASMA according to this privacy policy.
-  Volunteers agree when accepting positions to the association such as officers, committee chairs, show managers and secretaries, judges and stewards, and club contacts agree that their names and contact information may be made available in various locations on this web site.
-  Results of horse shows, program participation standings, achievement award winners and other association program results may also be displayed on this web site.

IMPORTANT FACTS

-  We do not release member's names to any outside organization.
-  We do not sell our membership or members lists to any other organization.
-  We may send members e-mail notifications of new features, services and topic-based news alerts.
-  Members may edit registration information or cancel a membership at any time.
-  We reserve the right to contact any member or members at any time regarding North American Saddle Mule Association membership renewals or other problems or questions as well as any changes.

COOKIE TECHNOLOGY

 Our web properties may utilize a standard technology called a "cookie." Cookies were designed to help users move faster through our site by recognizing a user's browser as a previous visitor and thus save and remember any preferences that may have been set while the user was browsing the site. A cookie cannot retrieve any other data from your hard drive, pass on a computer virus, or capture your e-mail address. Cookies can securely store a user's password and keep track of selections, such as those selected in a "shopping cart." We only use "cookies" to gather the information indicated in this policy and do not use cookies to gather personal identifying information about you.

ADSERVERS

 We do not partner with or have special relationships with any ad server companies.

EMAIL ADDRESSES

 Email addresses are collected solely for the purpose of communicating with the NASMA's customers.

 Email addresses are not shared with any third party at any time, for any purpose.

 However, NASMA Member email addresses are provided to NASMA Regional Directors for the purpose of privately contacting the NASMA member with Newsletter and zone information.

 If you wish to have your email address removed from this distribution list, please remove your e-mail address through the members' Log In.

CORRECTING PERSONAL INFORMATION

 Members of NASMA can modify their personal information on their individual "Member Log In" page.

YOUTH (AGES 18 & UNDER)

 Privacy of children: We are concerned about the privacy of children and do not knowingly collect any personal information from a child under 13.

 We suggest that you become involved with your child's access to the Internet and to our web site to ensure that his or her privacy is well protected.

 If you are under 18, you may transact business with NASMA only with the involvement of a parent or guardian.

 No information collected from members under 18 years of age is used for any marketing or promotional purposes whatsoever, either inside or outside NASMA unless it is directed to the parents or guardians of that particular youth. Any exception to this will be explicitly stated during registration for any contests or promotions (and in those cases, the information collected will be used only for the specific contest or promotion).

 Although members or other guests under 18 years of age may be allowed to participate in some contests and promotions, if such a guest wins, notification and prizes are sent to the parents or guardians identified by the youth. Publication of contest winners names, ages, or images for individuals under 18 requires parental or guardian consent.

LINKS TO OTHER SITES

 Users should be aware that when you are on NASMA Online, you could be directed to other sites that are beyond our control. There are links to other sites from NASMA's pages that take you outside our service. These other sites may send their own cookies to users, collect data or solicit personal information. Please keep in mind that whenever you give out personal information online that information can be collected and used by people you don't know. While NASMA strives to protect its user's personal information and privacy, we cannot guarantee the security of any information you disclose online and you do so at your own risk.

 NASMA's policy does not extend to anything that is inherent in the operation of the Internet, and therefore NASMA's control, and is not to be applied in any manner contrary to applicable law or governmental regulation.

YOUR ACCEPTANCE OF THESE TERMS

 By using this site, you signify your assent to NASMA's Privacy Policy. If you do not agree to this policy, please do not use our site. Your continued use of NASMA sites following the posting of changes to these terms will mean you accept those changes.
